

RED CROSS FUND MARK RAPIDLY BEING NEARED

High Schools Expected to Contribute Generously to Last Few Thousands.

Every high school in Washington is expected to make a heavy contribution to the patriotic war service fund of the District chapter of the American Red Cross, which is rapidly nearing the $100,000 mark. Already, the teachers and students of Central High School have contributed the sum of $1,000 and the other big schools of the District are expected to follow.

The finance committee of the Red Cross campaign issued an appeal yesterday, asking every one in Washington to contribute to the fund. The committee expects to have $100,000 contributed before the end of the present week, but so far, only big donors have been heard from. It was announced yesterday that the Dupont Circle chapter of the American Red Cross and Trust Company had called off its annual banquet and would contribute, instead, $50 to the Red Cross fund. Mount Vernon Chapter, No. 3, Royal Arch Masons, yesterday pledged $100 a year for each year of the war.

Other contributions listed yesterday are:

King's Palace, $100; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Shepard, $100; Mrs. Zebina Moore, $100; Emily B. Mitchell, $100; Martha Washington Seminary, $50; John S. Martin, $100; Mrs. J. H. Huff, Old Dutch Market, Inc., $250; R. Walton Moore, $100; Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Butler, $50; Miss Eleanor King Butler, $25; Mrs. A. F. King, $25; Miss Grace Denio Litchfield, $50; S. H. Vandegrift, $50; Mrs. R. C. Parker, $50; Miss Rose A. Palmer, $100; J. Pondheimer, $50; Blanche W. Emory, $50; Mrs. F. C. Rowan, $100; Charles H. Frantz, $25 (per month); Mrs. Ridgely Hunt, $50; the Misses Pillsbury, $100; Miss Helen Sargent, $50; Miss Irene Blair, $50; Daniel Hazard, $100; Pulaski Legion Chapter, Chevy Chase Seminary, $50.

"TIZ" FOR FEET

For Sore, Tired, Swollen Feet; For Aching, Tender, Calloused Feet or Painful Corns—Use "Tiz!"

Whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents

"I use 'Tiz' when my feet ache, burn or puff up. It's fine!"

Good-bye, sore feet, burning feet, swollen feet, tender feet, tired feet. Good-bye, corns, callouses, bunions and raw spots. No more shoe tightness, no more limping with pain or drawing up your face in agony. "Tiz" is magical, acts right off. "Tiz" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. Use "Tiz" and wear smaller shoes. Use "Tiz" and forget your foot misery. Ah! how comfortable your feet feel. Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" now at any drugist or department store. Don't suffer. Have good feet, glad feet, feet that never swell, never hurt, never get tired. Beware of Imitations!—Adv.

Revival of "The Music Master" Leads Coming Theater Offerings

Belasco—David Warfield. The attraction at the Belasco Theater next week will be David Warfield, who comes under the direction of David Belasco, appearing in the comedy-drama, "The Music Master," by Charles Klein. Both star and play have been appearing before capacity audiences at the Knickerbocker Theater, New York, all season. This will be Mr. Warfield's last appearance here in his famous role of Anton von Barwig.

National—"Have a Heart." "Have a Heart," Henry W. Savage's up-to-the-minute musical comedy success, is to be the offering at the National Theater next week.

This distinctly different girl and music show was one of the biggest hits of the season in New York, where it played nearly half a year at the Liberty Theater. Any offering of Henry W. Savage is always sure of a hearty welcome at a local presentation, but if the advance reports of "Have a Heart" are any criterion this timely and tuneful entertainment is predestined to prove even more pleasing than any Savage offering of recent years. The carefully chosen company comprises the entire New York cast just as presented, during the long Metropolitan run, with the complete production just as given at the Liberty Theater, New York, and the Forrest Theater, Philadelphia, where the play proved the most popular success of the entire season.

Poll's—"Hit-the-Trail Holiday." The Poll Players will next week offer "Hit-the-Trail Holiday," a play from the pen of George M. Cohan. Fred Niblo scored a wonderful success in the title role, and it is expected that William P. Carleton, the Poll Players' leading man, will score in this play.

There is splendid satire and delicious humor in the making of Billy Holiday, an ex-bartender, into a temperance lecturer. Holiday has been engaged to open up the bar in a recently completed hostelry in New England. When he gets there the dominating manner of his new boss and the tyrannical attitude he assumes toward everybody in general arouses the ire of the bar-keep, who throws up his job and starts in to boost the cause of temperance and the sale of "nearly beer."

"Hit-the-Trail Holiday" is a clean play, with one hearty laugh right after the other.

B. F. Keith's—Vaudeville.

Nat. M. Willis will make his annual spring visit to B. F. Keith's Theater next week. As "The Happy Tramp" he will tell new stories of his wanderlust and add new songs touching timely topics.

The extra added attraction will be the international dancer, Miss Evan-Burrows Fontaine, assisted by J. Sheldon and a large company of classical dancers in pagan and modern romantic and legendary dances featuring "The Bride of the Sun God."

The third stellar attraction will be Ota Gygi, former court violinist to the King and Queen of Spain, and Maroon Vade, premiere danseuse.

The remainder of the bill includes William Hallen and Ethel Hunter, in "Just for Fun," Kelly and Galvin, in "The Actor and the Italian," Leah Nora and company, presenting "The Happy Smile Girl," Mosher, Hayes and Mosher, "Three Men on a Wheel," the pipe organ recitals and the fourteenth episode of "Patria," starring Mrs. Vernon Castle.

The week of April 23 Gertrude Hoffmann will be here.

Next Sunday at 3 and 8:15 p. m. the bill will present May Irvin, Florence and Frank Moore, and all the other smart novelties on view this week.

Loew's Columbia—Blanche Sweet.

Loew's Columbia announces as the feature photoplay for the last half of this week, commencing Thursday, Blanche Sweet in a picture of F. Hopkinson Smith's "The Tides of Barnegat."

In "The Tides of Barnegat," in the role of a school teacher Miss Sweet bears the blame of her sister's shame, sacrificing the love of her sweetheart, and about to be driven from the village that her sister may be protected.

Sunday and for the first half of next week Pauline Frederick will be seen in "Sleeping Fire," a story of a woman's love and a man's folly.

Gaiety—Burlesque.

"A New York Girl," one of the brightest and breeziest comedies on the Columbia Circuit, is the attraction for next week at the Gaiety Theater. It is sponsored by Peter S. Clark, whose name stands high in the list of progressive producers. Miss Babette, an eminent French actress, heads the excellent cast, which also includes Harry Bentley, a comedian of ability, and Walter Pearson, Clare Evans, Irving Sands, Francis Tait, Batafor, Sylvia Brody, Mamie Mitchell and Jane Pearson, and is completed by a chorus of exceptionally attractive girls.

and an octet of male voices. The vehicle presented has been styled "Ninety in the Shade," a musical oddity in two acts and six scenes. It is said to possess a superb floor show keeping with the times, together with an occasional flash of suffragette interest. The stage settings, said to be highly artistic, include representations of a summer villa, parts of Chinatown, and the famous Times Square on Broadway. It is a speedy show with dialogue, musical numbers, specializations and genuine novelties molded together in such a manner as to hold the close attention of the audience until the fall of the final curtain.

Cosmos—Vaudeville.

Fifteen instrumental artists selected from the best organizations with a combined orchestra and band, offering an elaborate program of choice selections will be the chief attraction of the Cosmos Theater bill next week. It is called "Victor's Musical Melange" and the conductor is Alessandro Vittori.

Other acts include Quinn and Laferty, dancers extraordinary in "Tansans du Mode," Emily Smiley and company in "Chorus Girl's Luck," presenting a popular star and an amusing playlet; Betty Bond of London and Cascan, in her new hit, "Five Flights of Musical Comedy," Lord and Buller, in "Vari-form Vaudeville," ranging from song selections to cycling; William and Anita, The Juggler and the Model, and Ben Smith, "the gloom killing minstrel from Missouri."

The Vitagraph's production "Arsene Lupin," featuring Elsie Williams, a photoplay of mystery, suspense and love, will be the film attraction, supplemented with the Hearst-Pathe news and a comedy picture.

Moore's Strand—"Womanhood."

"Womanhood, the Glory of the Nation," the preparedness photoplay, has met with hearty endorsement at Moore's Strand Theater. "Womanhood" is a sequel to "The Battle Cry of Peace," and shows the Eastern section of America in the hands of an invading force. Among the many thrilling scenes of the picture are the warships of Uncle Sam in action, aeroplane battles, the destruction of great buildings and the vivid fighting scenes.

The presentation of the photoplay at the Strand Theater is preceded by a patriotic tableau musical prologue depicting two important epochs in American history, the spirit of 1776, the Blue and the Gray, and the Goddess of Liberty.

"Womanhood" was written and staged by Commodore J. Stuart Blackton and Cyrus Townsend Brady, and in its cast are included Alice Joyce, Harry T. Moore, Percy Hyatt, Joseph Kilgour, Naomi Childers, Walter McDell, Mary Maurice, James Morrison, Templar Saxe, Bobby Connelly and others.

A special musical score arranged expressly for "Womanhood" will be rendered by the augmented Strand Symphony Orchestra.

Moore's Garden—Earle Williams.

Earle Williams will headline the program at Moore's Garden Theater next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in a photodrama entitled "Apartment 29," an engrossing mystery story.

In "Apartment 29" Mr. Williams has one of the cleverest roles of his career and he plays throughout with quiet intensity that well suits his characterization.

On Wednesday and Thursday Enid Bennett, one of the Triangle company's newest stars, will present "The Little Brother," which exploits a new theme in film productions.

On Friday and Saturday Frances Nelson, remembered as the star of "One of Many," will lead the program in "Power of Decision," which allows Miss Nelson many opportunities for effective acting.

Other first-run pictures will be shown daily and special musical accompaniments will be rendered by the Garden Symphony Orchestra.

McCormack Concert.

John McCormack, the Irish tenor, will give his last recital at Poll's Theater Friday afternoon, April 13, at 4:30 under the management of Mrs. Wilson-Greene.

The story of John McCormack's achievements on the concert stage is well known in every American home. He is virtually an institution with the music-loving public of America.

Mount Pleasant Delegates To Convention Named

Delegates to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention to be held at the Fifth Baptist Church, April 25, were appointed at a meeting of the Mount Pleasant branch, W. C. T. U., held at the home of Miss Irene V. Banes, 2107 Thirtieth street northwest, yesterday afternoon.

The delegates are Mrs. William E. Andrews, Mrs. S. E. Haden, Mrs. Julia Boyd, Mrs. R. B. Hitchcock, Mrs. A. B. Carby, Miss Conkey, Mrs. Jerome Harris, and Mrs. David Brooks.

The committee on the erection of a drinking fountain at Fourteenth and U streets northwest reported that an amount sufficient for its construction had been raised.

Mrs. James A. Edgar, president of the Mount Pleasant branch, presided. After the business session, Mrs. William E. Andrews instructed the members in parliamentary law. Miss M. Bailey, of England, was the honor guest.

ANTI-SUFFS ACCUSED OF MEDDLING IN D. A. R.

Five Candidates for President General in Lively Contest.

Hundreds of the thousand and more delegates to the twenty-fourth annual congress of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, which opens in Continental Hall, Monday, April 16, are now in Washington. The society has now a membership of about $6,000, and will play no inconsiderable part in the patriotic work to be done by the women of this country in the present war.

Because of the high cost of living here, the less important eating places are being resorted to by the splendidly dressed Daughters who, even in their best afternoon costumes, do not seem to sit on high stools or dine at tables bereft of fine linen.

Just as though D. A. R. politics were not sufficiently lively with the congress less than a week off and a big election on hand, anti-suffragists have mixed up in the politics of the patriots, and it is claimed, have sent letters broadcast through the South western Daughters against one of the candidates for president general, who comes from a suffrage State, and declaring that she is likely to involve the society in the suffrage movement.

It happens that not only the Kansas candidate, Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey, but each of the other four candidates are in favor of suffrage, as is the outgoing president general, Mrs. William Cumming Story. Mrs. Guernsey's friends claim that as Kansas is a suffrage State, she would really have less cause to work for suffrage in the organization than would any of the other candidates, and that there is not the least fear of the luxury candidate's quest to introduce the subject in the patriotic society.

Mrs. Guernsey takes suffrage as a matter of course. Mrs. George C. Squires, of St. Paul, another candidate, belongs to the Welfare League, a suffrage society. Mrs. J. H. Lewis, of the administration candidate who was thrust into the campaign rather late, worked ardently with the suffragists in the recent Illinois campaign, and Mrs. John Miller Horton, of Buffalo, has long been known to sympathize with the movement.

Neither politics nor religion have ever been made an issue with the D. A. R. society, and it is not likely to have much weight in the present issue.

Mrs. Lewis, the last to come into the ring, will return from a Southern campaign trip tomorrow. She found the South rather solidly pledged to the Kansas candidate, and it is thought she will take the advice of friends and withdraw. Mrs. Lewis' large number is of an official nature preliminary to the Congress will be the Continental Hall committee meeting called for tomorrow evening in Memorial Continental Hall. This committee is the largest and most important one of the national society. It is composed of the national officers, State regents, vice presidents general, representatives of the various States, and about 200 other women appointed by the president general.

Mrs. William Cumming Story is chairman and will preside. The other officers of the committee are Mrs. Charles B. Bryan, vice chairman; Mrs. Robert Lansing, secretary, and Mrs. Delos A. Blodgett, resident secretary.

Army and Navy News

Best Service Column in City.

The Ordnance Department of the army is pushing preparations to supply deficiencies in field artillery that will be needed for the national army.

Orders have been placed for the manufacture of forty-six 5-inch Howitzers and transport vehicles, twenty-six of them having been given to the Bethlehem Steel Company and twenty to the Midvale Steel Company. In addition, orders have been placed to increase the number of 4.7-inch field guns and 6-inch field howitzers under manufacture by contract and at the arsenals.

Production of field artillery material will be pushed to the full extent of the government's plant and facilities available. While it is not the present intention to abandon the competitive tests of machine guns, which were arranged some time ago to be held next month, the purchase of such guns will not be made known.

In the meantime the War Department will purchase all machine guns of the different types that may be available and that are in any way suitable for the service. The War Department is on hand practically all the equipment required for outfitting 50,000 mobile soldiers, with the exception that there is a large deficiency of field artillery and machine guns, and it is for this reason that the work on these classes of material is being pushed.

Besides the 4.7-inch guns and 6-inch and 9.6-inch Howitzers, work also is being rushed on the production of smaller caliber pieces, including the standard 3-inch guns, 3.5-inch field guns, 4.2-inch guns, 5.5-inch field howitzers already in under manufacture, and designs of other calibers of mobile artillery, but for transportation on road vehicles and on railway cars, are being rushed toward completion.

The food problem is a big one aboard Uncle Sam's battleships, and officials of the Navy Department constantly are on the watch for suggestions to improve methods and to minimize expenses.

An interesting report regarding the mess system on board the U. S. S. Michigan, with special reference to the use of combined food-serving pans and carriers for the general mess, has been submitted to the Navy Department by Paymaster F. G. Pyne, U. S. N., supply officer attached to the vessel.

There were purchased sixty-eight sets of food-serving pans, and the system was tried out for a month. The main purpose of the food server is to carry the food from the galley to the mess tables covered up so that the food will be hot when served. Each table is considered a unit by itself, one food server is provided for each unit, and one messman is in charge of every two units. All the food required for two tables can be carried from the galley in one trip.

Paymaster Pyne says the scheme has proved very successful. Food is served more quickly, and hot portions are served. The pans being put on the mess tables permits the men help themselves to the separate portions as desired, without having to depend on the judgment or favor of the messman. About twenty minutes is required to fill the pans and carriers in the galley, and less than three minutes is necessary to serve out to the messmen.

The call for "seconds" is materially less and probably will diminish further as the cooks become more experienced in serving. The pans being put on the tables, food containers are kept off the deck, and consequently the food is more sanitary and attractive to the men. An additional advantage of the food servers is their usefulness in serving hot and clean food to working parties away from the ship.

The results of the trial of this device on the Michigan are considered satisfactory and fully warrant the extension of the mess system to other ships.

The Ford Automobile Machine Gun Corps, to be formed by Ford car owners who will offer their services and cars to the United States government, has been endorsed by the War Department. Volunteers are registering rapidly.

MOTH RAVAGE NOW DUE; PROTECT YOUR CLOTHES

At this season of the year the tiny, yellowish moth which is seen occasionally flitting about the lamp at night is an indication to the housekeeper that clothes moths are beginning their work of destruction. Egg laying by these little moths is now under way, and within a month in the latitude of the District of Columbia the eating of woollens and furs by the tiny caterpillars coming from these eggs may be anticipated.

The protection of woollens, furs, feathers and like materials from the attacks of the larvae of these moths is secured only by constant vigilance and careful inspection and treatment.

As early as possible in the spring, all woollens, furs, etc., the use of which can be dispensed with, should be put away in safe storage for the summer. Before being packed away such articles should be thoroughly brushed and beaten and, if possible, exposed to the strong sunlight for several hours out of doors. The brushing is important in
